

MISSION STATEMENT
 We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.
"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

--John 15:5

The number of Priests in the U.S. has dropped by nearly 50% over the last 50 years (from 60,000 to 35,000). The decline in the number of Deacons, Religious Brothers and Sisters is also alarming.

Will you please join us for just an hour per month to Pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life? We will meet on the First Friday of the month, at 7:00 p.m. We will gather in the Church for Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction. Appropriate forms of Physical Affection

Children, by nature, give and seek physical affection — hugs, pats on the arm or leg, even kisses. It is the responsibility of adults to know what is and is not appropriate when it comes to responding to this need for physical affection. One tip to consider is the acronym PAN, meaning touch that is public, appropriate, and non-sexual. This could include high fives, side hugs, back pats, and other displays of affection that reaffirm an emotional connection without crossing the child's personal boundaries. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Touch (A Sensitive Subject)" on lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

School Student Non-Discrimination Policy

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical conditions, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

War does not resolve any problem. It only sows death and destruction, increases hate, multiplies vengeance. War erases the future. I exhort believers to take only one side in this conflict: the side of peace – not in word, but in prayer.

Veterans Day

For most of us, Veterans Day holiday just means a chance to enjoy an extra day off from work or school. However this November 11th, be sure to spend a few minutes on the true purpose, by acknowledging any person who served in any military service branch. These include the members of the U.S. Army, Air Force, Marine Corps, Navy, or the Coast Guard.

Prayer of Thanks

O, heavenly Father,
We thank thee for food
and remember the hungry.
We thank thee for health
and remember the sick.
We thank thee for friends
and remember the friendless.
We thank thee for freedom
and remember the enslaved.
May these remembrances
stir us to service,
that thy gifts to us
may be used for others.

Amen

Beware of the scribes in Middle School . . .

It happens at schools across the country. This particular day it happened at a Middle School in South Carolina.

And one dad would have none of it.

A group of seventh-grade girls are talking, and suddenly, one of the girls, Ryan, is teased about what she wears. The other girls join in the teasing. The teasing becomes more and more cruel. Poor Ryan is reduced to tears. This is not the first time she has been the target of such bullying.

When Ryan returns home, her mom asks what's wrong and Ryan pours out the story of what happened. When her mom asked her who the girls were, it turns out one of the girls is the daughter of one of her mother's friends. So Ryan's mom called the girl's parents — and the girl's father quickly responded. He had been bullied when he was in school and understood exactly how Ryan felt.

So he confronted his daughter. The following Saturday his daughter was supposed to go shopping for new clothes for school — but instead, her dad said, she was to take Ryan shopping with the money that had been set aside for her new clothes. Given his daughter's love of fashion and clothes, he thought this would be the perfect punishment.

And it was.

Ryan's young life has been hard of late: she has been struggling with the deaths of her father, grandfather, and aunt; the stress has caused her to suffer non-epileptic seizures. The shopping spree was an experience of hope for Ryan. "This is the first time I have seen a parent take such a stance on bullying," Ryan said.

Her mom's friends' daughter learned an important lesson. In fact, she helped Ryan pick out her new clothes.

The afternoon of shopping turned out to be the beginning of a friendship between the two girls.

The arrogance of the scribes that Jesus condemns is very much alive and well in our own time. Too often we presume our economic status or education or race or gender make us superior to others, that we are entitled to more and better and have no hesitation to lord that superiority over others. The kingdom of God, however, is realized only in our embracing the spirit of servanthood that is at the heart of Jesus' Gospel: servanthood centered in respect for everyone as daughters and sons of God; servanthood that finds fulfillment and satisfaction in the love, compassion and kindness we can extend to others; servanthood that enables us to place the common good and the struggles of others before our own wants and narrow interests. The faithful disciple honors the dignity of the servant above the presumed power of the elite. To follow Jesus is to realize our need for one another and their need for us.
