

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.
"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

--John 15:5

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY
August 25, 2024

“The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe.” And he said, “For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father.” As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.

The number of Priests in the U.S. has dropped by nearly 50% over the last 50 years (from 60,000 to 35,000). The decline in the number of Deacons, Religious Brothers and Sisters is also alarming.

Will you please join us for just an hour per month to Pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life? We will meet on the First Friday of the month, at 7:00 p.m. We will gather in the Church for Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction. Today

Fr. Anthony Arul Savarimuthu is here at De La Salle this week-end to make the Mission Appeal for the Diocese of Kottar.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Office for Divine Worship and Catholic Communication Collaboration (C3) are thrilled to announce the launch of our new online classes on the parts of the Mass!

These courses are designed to deepen your understanding of each element of the Mass, from the introductory rites to the concluding rites, and to enrich your participation in the liturgy. Although these classes are especially designed for liturgical ministers, we invite all of our fellow Catholics to participate.

The sacred liturgy is the privileged means through which Catholics encounter Jesus Christ. It celebrates his paschal mystery—his death, resurrection, ascension, and sending of the Spirit—and is a channel of the Lord's grace. The liturgy is not a mere ritual, but a living expression of Catholic faith that nourishes and sustains believers.

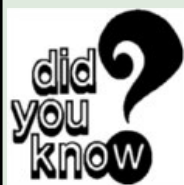

The classes are offered to you at no cost, thanks to C3. We hope you take advantage of this opportunity.

Please view Archbishop Jose H. Gomez' video invitation at: <https://youtu.be/gnr2hwsybha>

To sign up for the course, please go to:

Teach children to evaluate sources

Your children will likely spend a significant amount of time online. All sources are not created equal, so teaching them to evaluate the information online is critical. Using concepts appropriate for their age, teach your children to consider the expertise, motive, and relevance of the information they consume. Being able to separate fact from fiction, and to evaluate the quality of the information received, will help your children assess truth. For more tips, read the VIRTUS® article “Keeping Kids Safe Online By Teaching Them to Evaluate Sources” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ, You are invited to a potentially life-changing experience! On September 28, 2024, at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels Conference Center, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles will host Rescue Live! with ACTSXXIX.

Rescue Live! is an amazing opportunity for three things, hopefully, to happen: first, to be overwhelmed by the power of the Gospel; second, to surrender our lives to Jesus in faith; and third, to be mobilized for mission, because we were born for these days in which we are living. We are not alive by chance; God chose us to be alive for this very time.

This experience is for anybody and everybody—for people who have never been inside a church, for people who have left the church, and for people who go to church. Come as you are! The day will include powerful preaching, praise and worship, and warm hospitality.

Rescue Live! will help us understand again (or for the first time) the answers to four big questions: Why is there something rather than nothing? Why is everything so obviously messed up? What, if anything, has God done about it? And if He has done anything about it, then how should I respond?

Go to lacatholics.org/rescue-live to register for free. We look forward to seeing you at Rescue Live!

Faith Formation News

*“for in the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven meets His children with great love and speaks with them”
(Dei Verbum)*

Starting in September, the School of Religious Education will be offering Children’s Liturgy of the Word for our parish children during the 9:00 a.m. Mass. The program is free to all our parish children ages 4 -10.

The Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is a wonderful time for children ages 4-10 to build their relationship with God in the company of their peers. With the help of a catechist, scripture, faith-based activities, and prayer are used to help the children explore their faith. Look for the banner in the entrance procession during 9 a.m. Mass to confirm that CLOW will take place. Children are called forward by the priest to join their catechist and are dismissed to move to the Kateri Room for the session. The children will return to their family members during the collection.

If you are interested in becoming a CLOW volunteer or have additional questions, contact Mrs. Cole at 818-368-1514.

The “words of eternal life . . . “

They were assigned as roommates at the beginning of their freshman year. At first, things went well — but slowly they got on each other’s nerves. One roommate stayed up late every night, studying and listening to music — his light was on until well after 2 a.m. every night. The other was a slob: clothes, books, and gear were strewn all over the place; their bathroom was a disaster. After weeks of stony silence broken only by their bouts of shouting at one another, they asked the student housing office to separate them, but nothing could be done until the spring semester. The two were stuck with each other until Christmas. So, they finally did what they should have done in September: talk reasonably and respectfully to one another, seeing the problem from the other’s perspective, and agreeing to change those behaviors that made sharing the space a nightmare. And it worked — it worked so well that they were roommates for their entire four years of college. Selflessness and reconciliation, the words of eternal life . . .

Parents and teachers around the country are beginning to address the negative effects of social media on their children. With teenagers averaging five hours a day on their “smart phones” plugged into social media, depression, anxiety, isolation, loneliness, and bullying are all on the rise. So school administrators, backed by parents, are taking on social media, banning phones from school campuses and instituting programs to help students deal safely and responsibly with social media. Integrity and responsibility, the words of eternal life . . .

Like most households, a family’s weekly trip to the supermarket is a challenge, but they’ve managed to make the monthly budget stretch to cover all their needs. But they know that many other families in their community aren’t so lucky. So this family manages to put a few dollars away each week for the community food pantry. Mom and dad and the kids volunteer two nights a month at the church’s soup kitchen. And they’re on the list of folks to call when someone in the parish needs help. Compassion and generosity, the words of eternal life . . .

The most important lessons we learn in life are usually the hardest; The Gospel can be difficult to embrace: Jesus’ “command” that his disciples be forgiving and merciful runs counter to what human convention dictates; God’s call to justice and forgiveness can make us very uncomfortable and uneasy. We often struggle to “endure this kind of talk” not because we don’t understand Jesus but because we understand Jesus all too well. God’s compassion, mercy and forgiveness are hard lessons to live in the challenging and complex lives we live but, in our struggles to act faithfully and with hope, we begin to understand that we are part of a world much greater than ourselves, that we are connected to everyone through the dignity we all share as daughters and sons of God.
